USB-ED in partnership with BiomatrixWeb

BIOMATRIX Public Private Partnership Design

Although public-private partnership organisations differ according to their legal set-up, business model and structure, they tend to share similar problems (e.g. lack of coordination, duplication, internal competition, power struggles, a lack of shared vision and resource problems). Redesigning the partnership into a coordinated learning matrix will dissolve those problems and set it on a path of desirable and sustainable development.

Participants use the partnership organisation of which they are a part as the case study system throughout the course. In template-driven assignments they identify and analyse problems, brainstorm solutions, create an ideal design, implementation plan and change management plan for transforming the case study system.

Facilitator: Dr Elisabeth Dostal

She is a leading systems thinker who co-developed Biomatrix systems theory and methodology. As a prominent systemic management consultant, researcher and educator, she has gained considerable experience about sustainable business and organisation development in private and public sector organisations and NGOs. She also taught on several South African and European MBA programmes, published in scientific journals, and is the author of two books. She established BiomatrixWeb, a consulting organisation with an education-driven approach to organisational and societal change and BiomatrixSchool, which delivers online courses on sustainable system design.

Programme modules

1. OVERVIEW OF BIOMATRIX SYSTEMS THEORY

This module explains the key concepts and methods of systems and complexity theories in general and of Biomatrix systems theory specifically. Self-reflection assignments promote a (w) holistic view of the world and of sustainability.

2. SYSTEMIC PROBLEM (DIS)SOLVING

This module explains the theory and practical steps involved in complex problem analysis and dissolving them through ideal system redesign. Assignments guide problem analysis and brainstorming of solutions for the case study system.

3. SEVEN FORCES OF SYSTEM ORGANISATION: ENTITY SYSTEM PERSPECTIVE

This module explains the matrix design of entity systems based on seven organizing forces and their organising principles. Assignments guide the ideal redesign of the case study system.

4. IMPLEMENTATION PLANNING

This module explains how to make an implementation plan for an ideal design. Assignments guide the implementation planning of the ideal case study design.

5. CHANGE MANAGEMENT DESIGN

This module explains the theory and practical steps involved in managing the transformation of a system with stakeholder participation and alignment. Assignments guide the change management planning for the case study system transformation.

The programme as a learning investment

After completing the course the participants will be able to:

- · think more (w)holistically and creatively
- explain the generic principles of how systems are organized, develop and change in a sustainable manner
- apply the knowledge of the generic structure and functioning of an 'information age relevant learning matrix to the redesign and management of a public / private partnership organisation
- facilitate problem analysis, brainstorming, system (re)design, implementation planning of their own and any other public / private partnership organisation
- plan and manage the transformation of a partnership organisation in such a manner that it ensures stakeholder alignment and commitment
- explain the different types of entity systems (e.g. business organisation, government department, public governance body, NGO, NPO, public-private partnership organisations) and apply the generic knowledge of entity system (re)design and transformation to them.

The programme is presented online and participants will be required to complete individual assignments.
